Christmas 2009

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

To all our very appreciated friends

Winter has finally arrived here with three days of heavy snow. I can be very selfish! I was so excited at the thought of having a white Christmas until I went out to the villages and saw how people are really struggling to keep warm and dry and until I saw old people unable to walk on the streets because of the fear of falling.

We've been kept very busy giving out food packages and shoe-boxes to the poor. We also managed to provide felting for the roof at Irinas because her small mud hut was leaking in.

Here are some pictures of the party with our ladies in Secuieni and above is a picture of Jadyn in the park.

I've been especially blessed this year seeing Jadyn sort out her toys to give to the kids that haven't any and seeing her savingstealing, loose change to buy a pair of shoes for a little boy who lives close to Vasile. Vasile came out of hospital on Friday having had another operation, this time on his legs. Praise God that he's home with his family for Christmas and is feeling much better.

So with all the busy stuff out of the way we're sat waiting for the carol singers to visit, we've finished gift wrapping and we can finally sit and write to our dearest friends.

We pray for you to have a very happy Christmas, remember who this is all about. We pray for you to have a very healthy, prosperous and exciting 2010 and most of all we pray a prayer of gratitude and appreciation for each one of you.

Jill, Sorin, Mia, Lidia and Jamie.
