

News from Shalom Christian Centre, Pakistan January 2010 An Evening Dedicated to Sweet Memories of Honourable Eva Pullian Hartik

Respected Friends,

Greetings from Shalom Christian Centre, Jhelum, Pakistan. I pray that you and your families are fine and have safely entered year 2010.

We organized this event on 2nd January 2010. Once again God enabled me to continue a healthy tradition of sharing joys of Christmas with those who have been largely ignored. About 65 widows were invited to receive gift packs (1kg sugar, 1 pkt of tea, 2 pkts of local sweets and other gifts).

The chapter of love 1 Corinthians Ch.13 was sung which was backed by a message by Rev. Anwar Khan (my father) who happened to be with us at Christmas after 27 years. The message largely focused on the responsibility of Church/Christians to be mindful of the practical aspect of God's word. The Rev. John F. Marcus took a few minutes to appreciate the work of Shalom.

In the end the gifts were distributed and the name of our Lord and Saviour was lifted high. The beneficiaries went away happy, rejoicing and praying for us. I, with all my team of people who helped me organize such a wonderful event, received lots of warm hugs and prayers from these elderly women and that is I what I consider the biggest take for me out of this.

I want to take this opportunity to thank those dearest friends who sacrificed their precious resources to enable me to continue presenting Christ relevantly and brought joys to the faces and hearts who had long forgotten to be happy!

Kindly remember this event and these people at next Christmas.

Humbly
